Swept by a Cyclone

Of approbation to the pinnacle of popularity, most potent stomachic has acquired a commanding position, which has occasionally made it a bright and shining mark for knaves, who seek to fast upon the community spurious compounds in the guise akin to that of the real article. These are mostly local bitters or tonics of great impurity and, of course, devoid of medicinal efficacy. Be aware of them and get the genuine bitters, a real remedy for malaria, rheumatism, kidney trouble, dyspepsia, nervousness, constipation and biliousness. Physicians of eminence everywhere commend the great purgative, both for its remedial properties and its purity. A wineglass thrice a day will soon bring vigor and regularity to a disordered and enfeebled system.

THE TIME HAS COME.

It Has Been Neglected Far Too Long.

The Spring is the Time For You To Look Out For Yourself. Symptoms at this Season You Must Heed to Keep Well.

Most serious are those diseases affecting the liver and kidneys. The very thought of them sends a thrill of horror through the body. When the kidneys cannot work death must result.

The symptoms pointing to weak or diseased kidneys are, headache, pain or weakness in the back, bloating, changes in the water, tired feeling, loss of appetite, gas in the stomach, indigestion, dyspepsia, dimness of vision, changes in the skin, sleeplessness and nervousness.

Here is a most remarkable cure of liver and kidney disease.

Mrs. C. R. Joyner, who resides at 10 Chapel street, Westfield, Mass., states:

"I was troubled with severe kidney trouble and indigestion, that gave me a nervous, trembling feeling, and I could not sleep very well. I used to wear plaster to relieve that miserable weakness in my kidneys. My liver was also in a bad condition."

"Early in the spring I was feeling so miserable that I decided to try Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. Up to this time I have taken two bottles, and it has done all for me that I represent, and no one who sees and knows me, will doubt a word of what I say. I have lived in this town thirty years."

"Now my health and strength are restored, as I do not have one pain about me. I can eat anything I wish, and am not bothered with the gas in my stomach. I don't even wear a plaster now, and don't have that tired, heavy feeling in going up stairs, and to express myself, can almost skip up and down, and am very thankful, for few can say it who have past their seventy years."

"I think that I came near Bright's disease."

"Some people will not take one thing long enough to give it a trial, and do not know whether it will help them or not."

"Now I feel first-rate, and I give Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy all the praise, and I recommend the Nervura to all."

The first move is a reduction of fare.

Hunting's Circus.

Were a single person among the 3,000 who witnessed the opening of the season of the Hunting Show yesterday afternoon and last night asked to select the strangest, most novel or most sensational act of the eighteen on the programme that person would, indeed, have a hard task to perform. The attendance at the afternoon performance was not such as to bring joy to the average circus manager, but when the 800 people present came out and told their friends that Bob Hunting had produced all that he advertised, and even more, those on the outside were reassured and last night comfortably filled the tent.

Manager Hunting made a short speech in which he formally announced that he would in future make Norfolk his home, and the home of the Hunting show. He took occasion to thank those present for their attendance, especially the members of Norfolk Lodge of Elks, who were present in a body. Every act was loudly applauded, especially those of Dave Castello (Laughing) and Mlle. Ada, in equestrian feats; Prof. Molin's performing dogs; the Pickett Bros., on the horizontal bar; the menage act of Mlle. Eugenia; the backward drop of La Fleur, the French acrobat; Miss Anna Pickett, on the slack wire, and the brothers Hunting, on the flying trapeze. The show left this morning for North Carolina, where the people will have an opportunity of witnessing a performance in every way worthy their patronage. On Monday next Mr. Hunting will entertain the people of Portsmouth.
